Chapter 1 by Avery Waller

She was lost in the forest with only a small backpack.

Chapter 2 by chasetomase23

Suddenly, terrible pain hit her in the gut.

Suddenly some terrible ache hit her right in the head. This was no regular ache, this was a ache that made her go different directions. So she made a remedy it worked but she got lost again from her forest home. She had to survive in the woods all by herself, but one day she met a little boy with the same small backpack she had on her back. She was getting lost with him not alone, but she has one question to ask him. As the pain and the ache was starting she hurtfully said "why am I aching" in a loud voice. The boy ran away, but she could not catch up instead she ran the other way screaming wait up please. After that day she was healed as she woke she seen the boy right there. "We never got to meet very well, what's your name" she asked. "My name is Roger" he replied. "Why did I ache" she asked in a whisper voice.....
